TO HONOR CARDINAL

Pepper Will Also Be Guest at Wayne Dinner

Guests from Philadelphia, New York and Washington will attend a dinner to be given tonight by Mrs. Archibald Barklie at her residence, at Wayne, in honor of Cardinal Dougherty and Sen-ator Pepper. Cardinal Dougherty will be accompanied by Monsignor Whitaker.

The Minister from Belgium will head a party coming from Washington for the dinner. Among other guests will be Justice and Mrs. Robert von Moschzisker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, Major and Mrs. Barclay Warburton and Mrs. Randal Morgan.

PASTOR GIVES UP DRIVE

The Rev. G. C. Richmond, Formerly of This City, Quite Town

Before he was half finished with his drive to clean up Evanston, Wyo., the Rev. George Chalmers Richmond, former pastor of St. John's Church in this city, has left that town and will spend the summer in Denver. He left Evanston denouncing Mayor Romick, who knocked him into the gutter recently, as "actuated by lownindedness and vindictiveness little short of criminal." The dictiveness little short of criminal." The Rev. Mr. Richmond did not say what occupation he will follow during the summer.

Mr. Richmond was found guilty by an ecclesiastical court of nine of 125 charges preferred against him as a re-sult of controversies with Bishop Rhinelander and was suspended two years from the ministry by the Episcopal Dio-cese of Pennsylvania in 1917.
